

月曜の朝。新しい ALT のグラント先生が、3年A組のうしろに小さな木の箱を置いた。音声聞きながら読もう (約1分・登場人物ごとに声が変わります)。

On Monday morning, Ms. Grant, the new ALT, put a small wooden box at the back of Class 3-A.

Ms. Grant: This is a question box. Write any question in English and put it in the box. I'll answer one question every day.

Takeru: Any question? Can we ask how old you are?

Ms. Grant: You can ask. But I may not answer that one.

The next morning, there were three cards in the box. Two were white. One was purple.

Yuna: Look at the purple card. The writing is very beautiful.

Ms. Grant: Let's read it. "Can you tell me why you came to Japan?" Good question.

Ms. Grant: My grandmother lived in Kyoto when she was young. She often told me how beautiful the city was. I wanted to see it with my own eyes.

Yuna: Takeru, I wonder who wrote the purple card.

Takeru: Let's find out. We're in the newspaper club. This is our next story.

(To be continued...)

[ことば] wooden 木の / question box 質問箱 / purple おらさき色の / writing 書かれた字 / grandmother 祖母
/ wonder ~かなと思う

